SLSQ AWARDS OF EXCELLENCE

Congratulations to the following members who won awards at the SLSQ Awards of Excellence. Due to COVID there was no official event held but the winners were announced on a Facebook Live event on 25 September.

October 2021

SPONSOR SPOTLIGHT

Configured to capture an abundance of natural light, cooling sea breezes and endless ocean views, COAST, developed by multi award-winning Sammut Group, is a superior oasis of tranquillity. Soaring 35 levels high in a peaceful street, the gentle curves of the exterior speak to the rhythm of the ocean.

COAST rests as a pure gem of modern luxury in balance with nature and offers half floor villas, double storey sky homes, full-floor sub-penthouses and an opulent penthouse spanning a masterful three levels.

LIFE SAVING & EDUCATION

PATROL SEASON 2021/22

Our patrolling season kicked off on Saturday 18th September and we will be on the beach every weekend and public holiday until Monday 2nd May 2022. We are incredibly fortunate to have 313 patrolling members who donate their time to keep our beach safe and we wish to thank every one of them.

SKILLS MAINTENANCE/PROFICIENCY

Please see below the remaining dates for our practical Proficiency/Skills Maintenance for this season. Please keep in mind that all award members need to attend proficiency annually (before 31/12/21) to be able to train, compete and/or patrol. If you are not able to attend either of these sessions, please contact Caroline or Christie at the club for assistance.

Saturday 30th October 8am

Sunday 28th November 8am

The 2021/2022 Season Skills Maintenance Theory is available online, all members have been emailed information on how to access this. Please ensure this is completed prior to attendance at a practical session. In addition, this year all members with blue cards MUST complete two Working with Children courses in the 21/22 season. Both these are available in your training library on the members portal.

LIFESAVING EXCELLENCE AWARD

The club has just been advised that 6 of our members have been recognized in the top 7 rescues in the state for the 2020/21 season. These members offered assistance and resuscitation to a local gentleman who collapsed on our beach in October last year. In recognition each of them will receive a Lifesaving Excellence Certificate and a Professor Tess Cramond AO OBE Resuscitation Medal.

Without their vigilance, quick response and professionalism, this gentleman would not have survived. Congratulations to Graham Adams, Sheldon Alcantara, Scott Bradford, David Bryant, Matt Gunn and Nick Tate.

UPCOMING COURSES

Our training room is presently being used as office space for Surf Club staff whilst the club is undergoing renovations. We hope to be back in there offering First Aid, CPR and Advanced Resuscitation courses by Christmas. If any of your awards are due to expire and you wish to renew them, please let Caroline or Christie know and we can let you know of any neighbouring clubs running courses.

Bronze Medallion January 10 - 14 2022

Surf Rescue Certificate January 10 - 12 2022

Passing of "old boy" Roy Nunn

It is with sadness that we inform members of the recent passing of one of our 'old boys', Roy Nunn. Roy was a member of our Club during the 1960's and 1970's with one of his best mates, Mick Power, a Life Member of BMD Northcliffe and Group Board Chairman of the BMD Group, our Naming Rights Sponsors. Our thoughts and prayers are with Roy's family and friends. Please see below excerpt from the Courier Mail, noting Roy's extraordinary life.

He graced the stages of Queensland theatres for decades but this 'inspirational talent' will leave an emptiness on stage after his sudden passing. He graced the stages of theatres around QLD for decades with his peers describing him as "one of the best". But talented actor and singer, Roy Nunn, has left an emptiness on stage after his recent sudden death which left his community shocked and saddened. The man, who lived and grew up in Wynnum, starred on stage for many different groups over the years, including Savoyards Musical Theatre, Mercury Theatre, MATES Theatre and the Villanova Players.

Mr Nunn, 71, was fawelled in what his friends called "one last sold out show" in a memorial at the Wynnum Manly Leagues Club on Thursday, where the more than 240 people in attendance joined in singing in favourite song, Imagine by John Lennon.

Family and friends at Roy Nunn's memorial at the Wynnum Manly Leagues Club. "The theatre groups that Roy was part of will all feel the emptiness on their stages and green rooms for years to come," MATES Theatre president, Suzy harper, said. "And the carpools on the way to see shows, will miss his singing and even his terrible back seat driving through the suburbs."

Roy Nunn's much-loved guitar on stage at his memorial. The man and father to daughters and several grandchildren, who was loved and respected by the bayside and theatre community, with one of Mr Nunn's friends calling him a "gentleman's gentleman". "He was one of the kindest, thoughtful, gently spoken men I ever had the privilege of knowing," artistic director of the Phoenix Ensemble, Shane Webb, said. "Roy was a talent and an inspiration and a sheer privilege to work beside, one of the best." At his memorial, son-in-law Aaron Wyeth shared stories of Mr Nunn's life, a calling him a "renaissance man".

Roy Nunn in 'Barbecue' by Daryl Pebbles, with actors Daniel Baker and Andrew McArthur. While childhood friends Mick Power and Bruce Truashaeim, shared highlights and special memories of raising young families, playing football at Wynnum Manly and being members of the Northcliffe Surf Lifesaving Club. Actor Anne Pensalfini also paid tribute to her fallen friend. "Roy was a funny, engaged, bold and generous actor, who persevered despite difficulties with vision," she said. "His wit and love for life and theatre was evident in everything he did." Mrs Harper said Mr Nunn would be sorely missed by everyone who knew him.
